Observations... From Around Town

(BY JAY WHOZIT)

Today is the deadline for probable candidates for office of City Commissioner to qualify to have their names placed on the ballot, but it is our belief that the two present candidates will not have any opposition, so it should not be hard for you voters to decide for whom you want to cast your ballot since there will only be two to pick from... last week's "Our Town" column by Mayor Carver, lists part of the thirty-eight street repair projects, needed in town, which have been recommended to the State Highway Planning Committee for their consideration and possible help in getting these projects underway... well, we sure hope some of these recommendations materialize, as our streets are really in need of immediate repair... the Bay-Waveland Garden Club Flower Show scheduled for this week end has struck another snag and has been postponed indefinitely... the mass X-ray unit from the State Health Department will return to Hancock County, beginning Monday, May 23rd here in Bay St. Louis from 9 A. M. to 3:30 P. M. at the city schools, and from 6 P. M. until finished at the Bay St. Louis Trade School; for the balance of the schedule through Hancock County check last week's Echo... the 21-year-old young man, Guy A. Whitfield, who was electrocuted this week was a grandson of E. Van Whitfield, former sheriff of Hancock County, now residing in Mobile, Ala. ... for the members of the graduating classes of Bay St. Louis' three high schools picnics, dances and dinner parties seem to be the order of their existence these past few weeks and will continue through graduation, one week hence... the Knights of Columbus will hold an all-day initiation here at their home on Main Street on June 12th, with all Coast Councils participating, and are dedicating this initiation in honor of one of their oldest members, Mr. Joseph O. Mauffray, who has been a member continuously for more than forty years... Most Rev. Bishop R. O. Gerow of Natchez, will address the graduates of Saint Stanislaus on May 29th, while Brother Alexis, president of St. Stanislaus Academy Class on the night of May 28th... if you haven't already done so it is not too late to make your contribution to the campaign for funds for Cancer Control, one of most dreaded of all diseases, and no respecter of age, race or creed... the hospital shower given recently, although successful to some extent, did not produce the results expected, and if you did not attend or send in a contribution, you may still do so and it will be greatly appreciated... the Saint Stanislaus Band is eligible to participate in the Chicago Music Festival in the month of August, on the basis of their performances in recent band contests, but it has not been decided whether or not they will make the trip... the St. Joseph Academy and St. Stanislaus Sodalties will hold their May Crowning of the Blessed Virgin Mary on this Sunday evening, May 22nd, at St. Stanislaus stadium, at 7:30 o'clock.

Appointed Member Of Committee Of National Organization

Joseph O. Mauffray, President of the Peoples Federal Savings and Loan Association of Bay St. Louis, received word today of his appointment to the Fidelity Bonds and Insurance Committee of the United States Savings and Loan League, the 57-year old nation-wide trade organization of the savings associations. The appointment came from M. K. M. Murphy, Rutherford, New Jersey, President of the League. The Committee on Fidelity Bonds and Insurance concerns itself with those arrangements between savings associations and companies, which protect them in financial relations. Adequate insurance on cars used in the association's business is an example of the phase of savings and loan operations which receives this Committee's attention in an era when much home building is being financed with many different builders doing the work for which the association supplies the money, the Committee is faced with such questions as: bonds which contractors furnish that they will complete the job and other legal protection of a technical nature.

The Bay-Waveland Garden Club Flower Show scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, May 21 and 22 has been indefinitely postponed due to circumstances beyond the club's control.

Former Bay St. Louis Resident Electrocuted While At Work In Biloxi

News has been received here of the death of Guy A. Whitfield who was killed in Biloxi on Tuesday at 3:15 P. M. by coming in contact with a 4000-volt wire he was splicing. Mr. Whitfield was a lineman for the Mississippi Power Company and was working on the line when the accident occurred. He was a native of Bay St. Louis. He is survived by his wife, two brothers, Horace of Gulfport and Donald of Mobile and a sister Miss Una Whitfield of Jackson. Whitfield was a grandson of E. Van Whitfield of Mobile, who served two terms as Sheriff of Hancock County. According to reports Whitfield was one of six members of a line crew doing routine maintenance work when he was hit by the wire just above his rubber gloves. It was said that a pair of connectors slipped out of his hand and hit him on the arm. L. W. Jones, another power company employee, was on the opposite side of the pole, on the same level as Whitfield, when the tragedy occurred, it was reported. After the victim was struck by the wire, members of the crew immediately lowered him to the ground. Crew members said that Whitfield apparently showed signs of life for about five minutes after the accident. All efforts were made by the crew to save him. Whitfield resided with his wife, a bride of little over a year, Mrs. Lynda Joyce Barrett Whitfield, at 1075 Lameuse street, Biloxi. He was a native of this city and was a World War II veteran. He moved to Biloxi three months ago from Gulfport where he held a similar job with the power company. His father Horace Whitfield and a brother were drowned at Henderson Point several years ago. The father was drowned in his efforts to save the drowning child.

Capt. Thompson Addresses Baptist Brotherhood Meeting

Captain H. J. Thompson was guest speaker at the meeting of the Baptist Brotherhood held at the First Baptist Church on Monday night. Captain Thompson spoke on "Christian Responsibility and based his talk on the idea contained in the hymn "Let the Lower Lights be Burning." He stressed the point P. P. Bliss had in mind, a harbor into which he could not go while on a boat because the lower guiding beacon in that harbor was not working. The large light in the harbor represents God and a ship seeking entrance to the harbor, or to God representing any man or any woman's access to God, is sometimes determined by whether or not the lower lights representing Christians are burning. "If we as Christians have feeble or dim lights the person seeking God may not find his way," Captain Thompson said. Barbecued chicken supper was served and a social hour was enjoyed by the group.

Speaks Before Rotary Club At Its Luncheon Wednesday

Clark Wilson, recently elected president of Gulfport Rotary Club was guest speaker at the Bay St. Louis Rotary Club on Wednesday. Mr. Wilson spoke on landscaping from a beautification standpoint and prefaced his talk by saying that if we want visitors to enjoy our coast it must be beautified. "This is hospitality month," he said "and the Coast offers climate and that combined with beauty will be conducive to increasing the population." The pre-step in landscaping, Mr. Wilson said, is cleaning up and the second step is a lawn. He recommended St. Augustine grass for the reason that it grows under trees and he also named Centepede grass which was imported from China for pasture grass. This will also grow under trees but can't always be depended upon. Shrubs should be planted sparingly next to buildings and shade trees anywhere on the lawn. Good taste demands that the area near the house be kept open, the speaker said. "No good landscaper uses specimen plants but rather goes to the group plants." On borders he recommended penulias, zennias, and other annuals to be planted so as to bloom in the summer and mass effect in roses just as mass effect in Azaleas but roses last longer.

Mrs. Eugene Mogabgab, president of the Gulf Coast Council of Garden Clubs, Mrs. George Stevenson, program chairman of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club and Miss May H. Edwards, publicity chairman, were guests of the club to hear Mr. Wilson. The class began its day long activities by attending Mass and Holy Communion at 5:30 a. m. in the Hotel Dieu Chapel. Breakfast was served at 7:30 a. m. attended by faculty members. A reception for friends and relatives of the graduates was given in the beautifully decorated auditorium by the Sisters of Hotel Dieu. A three tiered white iced cake made a beautiful centerpiece. The 50th anniversary of the beginning of the School of Nursing was celebrated in conjunction with the graduation activities which will be concluded with a dance Saturday night. The anniversary will be commemorated with the school's annual May Crowning Friday afternoon in the hospital court yard. Graduation exercises were closed with Solemn Benediction.

A Report Of The Bay High School May Facts Uncolored, From The City Records

SYLVAN J. LADNER, JR.
During my campaign last Summer I made several promises to the People of Bay St. Louis, all of which I am making every effort to fulfill. 1. A Detailed Audit of the City's Financial affairs. 2. To operate Our City on a sound financial basis and in a businesslike manner. 3. That I would not be DICTATED to by any individual, group or faction. As for a Detailed Audit, the State Auditing Department is busily engaged at this time in making such an audit and it is being made in spite of the determined opposition of the other two members of the Board. Had I not fought for and worked for the interest of the People, the true facts would have been covered up as they have been for the past 16 years. It was necessary for me to circulate a Petition REQUESTING the State Auditing Dept. to make such an Audit. It is because of this petition and the fight made by me and other Civic minded people that the true facts are being brought to light. It would have been a simple matter for me to have taken the route of least resistance, I but felt I owed it to the People and myself to awaken the Public to the existing conditions. As for my pledge to operate the City on a sound financial basis, it was necessary for us to first have a Detailed Audit in order to determine what our present financial condition is. The answer is obvious—practically bankrupt. The former Administration left us with heavy obligations and no funds with which to satisfy them. I have been referred to as a "Penny pincher," by the Mayor and his close "advisors." I feel that such a reference is a compliment, although it was not meant to be. In my opinion, I sincerely feel that conservatism is the only answer to the present financial dilemma in which we find ourselves. Wild spending, at the present time would plunge our City into complete bankruptcy. For my promise that I would not be dictated to by any individual, group or faction, I can truthfully say that my record, part of which is stated above, will clearly indicate how I have kept the faith of the people who elected me. I have by these actions, incurred the disfavor and enmity of the faction which has been dictating and controlling the policy and destiny of the City in the past. I have held an open mind for advice and counsel from people who are interested in the welfare of our City and not in selfish gain.

AMERICAN LEGION NEWS

Another year has rolled around. Not what we would call a very successful year, although our officers did their utmost to make it one of the most successful years in the history of the Local Post. Our membership drive was not up to full strength. Our building is still in the Blue Print stage and our funds remain about the same for the past year. This was no fault of the officers who did a splendid job of holding the Post together. The real fault lies in the lack of encouragement and financial help we have received both from the Public and from the members. We need all the help that we can get to make our "PLANS" become a BUILDING.

On Thursday night May 12, the election of officers for the year 1949-50 were elected. Much will be expected of these new officers but their success will depend on the help received both from the Public and the members.

The following officers were elected for the 1949-1950 term:

Fred Fayard, Sr., Commander.
Osmond A. Blaize, Adjutant.
Warren J. Buehler, 1st. Vice Commander.
Bert Estaba, 2nd. Vice Commander.
Dr. Laurent Dickson, Chaplain.
Gordon Ramon, Jr., Historian.
Woodrow W. Webb, Service Officer.
W. Bryan Graham, Finance Officer.
Dan Russell, Judge Advocate.
After the meeting a hamburger supper was served. The food was prepared by Mrs. Osmond Blaize and served by Osmond Blaize and Lucien Kidd.
The new officers will be installed in time for the State Convention which will be held in Biloxi, Mississippi.

Boy Scout Troop 217 On A Day's Outing at Fenton

The scouts of Troop 217 have completed one of the summer outings planned for the summer months.

The scouts assembled at the Scout House at 8:30 o'clock on Sunday morning to start on their way in trucks for Fenton, their usual camping grounds. Arriving at 10 o'clock the scouts set about gathering wood for the camp fire and preparing the camp. Upon completing this part of the program the patrols lined up and went through a knot-tying contest followed by a string burning contest. These two events completed the scouts were taken for a swim under the guidance of the Scout Master Peter Benvenuti. While the scouts were swimming Scoutmaster Fayard and two scouts remained at the camp to build the fire and prepare for cooking. After returning to camp the scouts were instructed in how to make fork sticks and how to place meat to cook on forks. By this time the fire had burned down to hot coals and the scouts proceeded to barbecue their meat. And the boys enjoyed their dinner which was topped off with ice cold drinks.

The next event was rope climbing in which all scouts participated. The troop and Scout Masters went on a five-mile hike in the woods the last mile of which was made on the hard surface road.

The group then went to White Sand Creek where action games, swimming, capture the flag were enjoyed and then back to where the boys cleaned the camp so as to leave it as they found it. The final call was given and the boys boarded the truck for home and arrived at the scout house at 5:30.

Scouts attending were James Seghers, A. Benigno, R. Favre, A. Jeanfrau, Mac Haas, R. Garcia, Fred Cabell, L. Benvenuti, Milton Cuevas, Arthur Seghers, V. Bermond, D.

CENSUS TAKERS TO BEGIN WORK IN HANCOCK COUNTY

A number of Hancock County, Mississippi, families will have a preview of the 1950 Census of Agriculture and Population during the week of May 23 when tentative questions and procedure for the decennial census will be tested on a sample basis in the county, it was announced today by District Meredith A. Bass, Gulfport, Miss.

Population information to be collected will include questions on age, citizenship, education, and employment. Agriculture questions will cover farm ownership, crop and livestock production, and an inventory of the number of livestock and poultry.

The census enumerators conducting the test will carry complete identification and the confidential provisions of the Census laws will apply to the information furnished by Hancock County residents, Mr. Bass said. This means that all individual information furnished to the Census Bureau will be kept in strict confidence and that none of its information may be used for purposes of taxation, regulation, or investigation.

Similar sample tests will be conducted in 63 other counties throughout the United States. The Census Bureau will use the experience gained in these tests in making final plans for the nation wide Census of Agriculture and Population which will be taken in April 1950.

Hospital Tea and Shower Held May 12th.

The annual Shower for the Kings Daughters' Hospital which always commemorates the birthday of Florence Nightingale, on May 12, was held this year with the Hospital Board and the nursing staff entertaining. The entire hospital was a mass of Easter lilies, gladioli and Queen's Lace with colorful spring flowers all artistically arranged by Mrs. M. J. Wolfe.

Many useful and much needed gifts were brought and some cash was also donated. However, this is only a very small part of what is needed for the operation of the hospital and it is hoped that help from other sources will be forthcoming. The Hospital needs an appropriation sufficient to sustain it. Bay St. Louis can no longer do without its own hospital. Let's rally to the cause.

Trade School Training Recognized As Vital To Welfare of State

Training in Private Trade Schools is one of the first steps in the industrialization of the South. It was noted by the Mississippi Association of Vocational Schools at a meeting held at the Walthall Hotel, Thursday.

Trade school training is recognized as vital to the welfare of the state and this pool of trade trained men might well attract millions of dollars here in the form of industrial expansion, the Association concluded. Methods by which trade school training might be improved, keynoted the meeting which included representatives from all sections of the state. Association representatives were assured that everything possible is being done to make Mississippi a leader in quality of training made available to both veteran and non-veteran students.

The Association laid stress on the extreme importance of this training program to the state of Mississippi and the proven ability of private trade schools to offer complete and proper training in the face of increasing demands.

More than 5,000 students are currently being trained in Association Member schools throughout the state. It was revealed during the course of the meeting. This swing to private trade schools has removed many young men from the unskilled labor unemployment lists and is raising our standard of living by producing trade trained men, it was pointed out.

GOLD MINE ?

Dreaming of riches in some far away land? Then wake up Mr. Mississippian and look in your own backyard! For here you'll find a veritable gold mine if you know how to prospect it.

Yes, more than 12 billion dollars is spent annually on travel and recreation in the United States, making this one of America's major industries from a standpoint of expenditures.

And, Mississippi's potential share of this astronomical sum is estimated to amount to $200,000,000 -- a gold mine right here at home.

Your state, through the Agricultural and Industrial Board, had been working for a number of years to get Mississippi a larger share of this business, and with ever increasing success.

Now you too can have a part in encouraging tourists to come to Mississippi more often and stay longer. How? By participating in "Hospitality Month" in Mississippi this May, by cooperating with your local Travel Promotion Committee.

TUNING IN ON AN Underground NETWORK

Beneath the surface on the average city street is a maze of gas mains, water lines and other pipes and cables of varying sizes. There are often many problems to be solved when a gas line is extended to new homes, stores or factories through this unseen network of metal. Companies in the gas industry employ an ingenious device known as a "pipe locator" to trace the underground pattern—to locate their own lines and to avoid damage to others.

Every resident of this area benefits in one way or another from the expanding activities of the natural gas industry, for the money the industry invests in payrolls, supplies and equipment means more money in circulation for all to share.

COUNTY AGENTS NOTES

HARVESTING WHITE AND RED CLOVER SEED

There are three things to look after in combining white and red clover seed.

1. The time to cut.
2. The mowing machine.
3. The combine.

The time to cut is when 75 percent of the first crop of seed heads are dark brown, but still standing up straight. If the first crop of head is allowed to fall down, the best seed will be lost. By cutting at this time a vesting can be started three weeks earlier than if you wait until all the seed heads are dark brown.

The mowing machine must be right to cut white or red clover low enough and the mower not choke every little bit.

Points to check before going to the field to cut clover.

1. Use a razor sharp smooth mower blade.
2. Change blades every two hours.
3. Put on new guards. If guards are not bent or broken, put the new ledger plates on old guards.

4. Check the mower glade for alignment. Use the instruction book with your make of mower to get it tened their baby, Urcell Wilhelmien, at the Valena C. Jones Methodist Church, Sunday May 15th with Rev. M. P. Johnson performing the ceremony and Mr. Vick Williams and Mrs. Elvira Favre as sponsors.

The Combine

Combines of all makes are made to harvest most all seed. There are a few things about the combine which must be done right if most of the seed are harvested.

1. First, the instruction book must be followed in setting the combine.
2. The shelling plate should be moved in as close to the cylinder as the clover will pass by.
3. The cylinder should have 16 bars in place of 8. All bent bars should be replaced.

4. The concaves are needed.
5. Lower the cylinder close to the concaves. A nickel slipped back and forth between the bar and concaves is about the right distance.

6. Be sure the air is set right and seed are not being blown over.
7. Set the chaffers so the chaff will go over, but will let the seed fall through. White and red clover seed can be almost cleaned if the chaffers are set right and screen used.
8. Do not try to harvest white or red clover without a screen. Get the screen recommended.

9. Every now and then get down and take your hat and catch some of the stems and threshed seed heads and see if seed are passing over and being lost.

Let white or red clover lie in the swath about three days and pick up with pick-up attachment without raking into windrows. Raking into windrows will cause clover to pick up moisture and not thresh. Eleven o'clock is about as early as clover will thresh well and about 4 p. m. is as late as it will thresh.

If rains come and the clover gets tied down with new growth, then it will have to be raked into small windrows and picked up and threshed. If it keeps raining and no threshing can be done, shock in large shocks, and leave until in August and run through combine. Bailing and stacking under a shed will save some seed if rains interfere.

Harvesting Wild Winter Peas

Harvest direct when three-fourths of the pods are brown and the seed will thresh cut.

The green seed at the top will thresh and are good if spread and stirred to keep them from heating.

Wild winter peas can be sown out on land needing seeding from the combine and save spreading, stirring and storing.

Hancock County Soil Conservation District Commissioners held their quarterly meeting in the local Work Unit Office, Bay St. Louis, May 10th.

The Commissioners reviewed and discussed the 1948 Annual Report, 1949 goals and accomplishments. The Commissioners decided to publish the 1948 Annual Report in the local papers and send a copy to each Co-operator.

Mr. D. C. Morris, District Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Hattiesburg attended the District Commissioner's meeting. After the meeting adjourned Mr. Morris made an interesting talk to the Hancock County Cattlemen Association, on "Development of Conservation Farming."

H. C. Stokstill, P. M. A. Vendor, completed building Plummer Shaw's stock pond last Friday. Mr. Shaw is now busy sodding the dam and spillway. Mr. Shaw has cleared all trees from the area. The pond will be stocked with brim and bass during next winter.

Fred C. Taylor is busy laying out V-Ditches on his farm. The V-ditches are now under construction. Mr. Taylor plans to blow the main ditch with dynamite.

J. L. Crump has blown approximately 4-miles of ditches with dynamite and he plans to finish within a few weeks. "These ditches are really draining the land and I believe it is the best way to drain this type of land," Mr. Crump, added.

—Mrs. W. H. Hodges and Miss Marion Hodges have issued invitations to a picnic at their home, Hickory Hill, on Sunday, May 22 complimentary to Miss Noel Delery Donovan of New Orleans, a bride of this month. Miss Donovan is a sister of Mrs. Ellis Guillory of this city.

Homemaking Projects Rank High Among 4-H Club Activities

"With more than a million homemaking projects being undertaken, 4-H girls are putting the 1949 theme 'Better Living for a Better World into action,' declared Guy L. Noble, director of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Mississippi girls carried 25,306 of these projects, and accepted the challenge to report good records of work well done in 1949, according to Mr. Noble.

Clothing, canning, home improvement, home grounds beautification, garden and poultry are among the activities considered in the National 4-H Girls Record Award Program. In addition to learning the job of homemaking, the girls come to know the basic principles for happy family relationships and community responsibilities. The Cooperative Extension Service supervises the program.

For over a quarter of a century, Montgomery Ward has rewarded girls whose accomplishments in this contest have been outstanding. Six national scholarships of $300 each—in place of the usual $200—will be given this year. An all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress will again be provided for winners in each of the 45 states participating, and for county winners, a gold-filled medal of honor. 4-H girls in Alaska, Hawaii and Puerto Rico also enroll in the contest, and champions receive a $100 U. S. Savings bond.

For the 1948 record judged best in Mississippi, Tommie Jean Flowers of Laurel was awarded a trip to the 4-H Club Congress. There were 14 county medal winners named.

FORESTRY NEWS

(By J. Roland Weston)

EXCELLENT FIRE RECORD FOR HANCOCK COUNTY FOR THE WINTER OF 1948-1949

Sometime during the latter part of last summer I wrote an article criticizing the State Forest Service for not giving enough of its time and attention fighting fire. I did that with the idea of need of impressing upon the State officials and the public the need of more and better fire fighting equipment. Now I want to compliment the State Forest Service and its personnel for making the best record in Fire protection history in Hancock County.

Hancock County was one of the first Counties in the state to have fire protection. It also had one of the first fire towers in the State. This work was started over 20 years ago. At many times it seemed as if the money and time was being wasted in fighting fires.

But the State Service has demonstrated this past winter what can be done with modern equipment and energetic workers to operate that equipment. The service now has two way radio on its jeeps and portable plows to mow some of the more important types of equipment now being used. This enables the men to reach the fires quicker and also to confine them to very small areas.

I understand that there have been more fires this year than last but that has been because the State Service gave such prompt and efficient action on the fires that they were able to put them out before they had covered but very little ground. Therefore those who would burn the woods had to set fires again and again to try to burn larger acreages.

I do not know the exact acreage that was burned this year but I have ridden over most of the County and I can see that the amount burned is the smallest ever.

Many people will not realize it, but the less land burned the better it is for everyone in the County. Land that has tree and plant growth on it resists erosion. There is more cover for the birds and animals, therefore hunting is better. Unburned woods helps the fisherman, pulpwood producers, land owners, farmers, etc. Also indirectly, the more trees there are to cut, the better it is for the filling stations, garages, grocery stores and so on.

The State Forest Service is also to be commended on the forbearance and broadmindedness with which they handled the violators caught burning the woods. A good many of these were victims of bad advice. Sooner or later these people will realize that public opinion is growing stronger and stronger against such activities. —The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Kearman Carr, nee Audrey Biehl was baptized at St. Leo the Great Catholic Church, Sunday afternoon, April 15th, in New Orleans. Miss Helen Biehl and Mr. Joseph Carr of McComb, Mississippi stood as Godparents. Young G. Kearman Carr, Jr., born April 18th at Hotel Dieu, weighed 8 pounds. Mr. and Mrs. Carr are now residing in New Orleans.

Again I say the State Forest Service and its personnel should be congratulated on — the best protection record they have ever made in Hancock County. Let's hope that next fire season they can equal this record.

Let's All Put Our Shoulder to the wheel

Mississippi can become one of the greatest vacation and recreation states in the South. We have the best highways in the Nation, excellent year-round climate, a beautiful Gulf Coast, historic interest, lovely state parks and scores of attractions which only Dixie can provide.

The big job now is to sell ourselves and others on these numerous advantages.

And that job can be accomplished during "Hospitality Month" in May if we all put our shoulder to the wheel.

Your state is advertising for its share of this 12-billion dollar travel and recreation business; your community has organized a Travel Promotion Committee to help our community get its share.

By supporting and cooperating with this Committee, you can help your town and yourself get a share of Mississippi's potential $200,000,000 travel business.

LOUISIANA STORY AT A. &amp; G. THEATRE MAY 24TH - 25TH.

The Whole World Is Robert Flaherty's Studio

By EILEEN CREEEMAN

Among people who know pictures best there are quite a few who prefer Robert Flaherty's. It's a long time between Flaherty productions, and for good reasons. They are all from "Nanook of the North" through "Moana" and "Man of Aran" to "Elephant Boy," made on location. They are the first of the documentaries with a story. They are still the best. And now there is a new one, "Louisiana Story," which will open at the A. & G. Theatre on May 24th. Flaherty, blue-eyed, white-haired, talked candidly, over finan had die and coffee at the Gotham, about the way this new film happened to be made. He was approached by a big oil company and asked if he'd like to make a picture.

"I told the public relations department that I would—if the company would keep its name off it," Flaherty said. "And it did, never interfered at all."

"This is not a publicity picture about the oil industry, nothing of the kind. It is a story about the effect of the digging of an oil well on the people who live on the property. As a matter of fact, in this particular story there was no effect, no permanent effect. Those bayou country of Louisiana. Those people are happy-go-lucky. Living from day to day. They're poor, don't own a thing. But there's always a living, fish to be caught, something to eat at hand. They don't worry. The oil derrick comes and it goes. It doesn't change their lives in the least."

Having selected Louisiana for their new production, the Flahertys hunted for a story angle. They found one, a small boy's reaction, toward this great piece of machinery, an oil derrick, and the people who ran it. "We did what we did with 'Elephant Boy,' tested a lot of children," Flaherty remarked. "Finally we got a 12-year old boy named Joseph Louis Boudreaux, son of a terribly poor family, share croppers. He talks with an accent, of course, like all those Cajuns. That's a corruption of Arcadians, the French people who settled in the bayou country long ago."

"That's probably the only place in the world where they use floating derricks standing, as they do elsewhere. They move them about, and those derricks have personalities. They have extraordinary histories, too. Ours was derrick No. 1. We try to show what it meant, this strange huge machine, to a boy who believed in werewolves and mermaids and all kinds of magic. They do believe in all that down there. The derrick was just another piece of magic to this boy."

"The great problem about motion pictures is this: there is only one audience," Flaherty said gravely. "That is true of no other art. A writer can do well with a thick book or a thin one. He can be a best-seller with a biography. Novels are written for different tastes. The same thing is true of paintings and of the stage. On Broadway a producer can plan for one kind of audience or another."

"But there is only one audience for pictures. Every picture must be made to please that one audience. That is impossible. It leaves no place for the usual picture. It gives no pictures to the millions—as it supposed to be forty million now—who don't go to movies because they don't like the standard film. Surely there should be a way to show unusual pictures that don't fit the expected pattern."

With art theaters popping up all over the country, with both audiences and theaters more interested in pictures that are not stereotyped, the Flaherty films should be increasingly popular. "Louisiana Story," describes the life in one little-known

This is "Hospitality Month"

YOU
doing about it?

Visitors from every section of the United States are coming to Mississippi in ever increasing numbers. It is estimated that tourist business for the state may reach $200,000,000 annually.

These tourist and recreation expenditures benefit everyone, directly or indirectly. They add to the general welfare and prosperity of our state and our community.

The big question now is: "What are you going to do about it?"

The month of May has been set aside as "Hospitality Month" in Mississippi — a time when we may take stock of our tourist assets and participate in a program to encourage tourists to come more often and remain longer. Governor Wright is encouraging every citizen to take part in this aggressive program to help Mississippi increase its tourist business — to help us secure our share of the travel dollar.

A local Travel Promotion Committee has been organized to do this job in our town and it will be expecting your help in putting "Hospitality Month" over here.

Do your part by cooperating in the program which this committee is conducting for your benefit.

A 7 POINT PROGRAM FOR "HOSPITALITY MONTH"

1. Create a community consciousness of the opportunities and responsibilities that lie in Community Travel Promotion.
2. Make our community more attractive physically.
3. Know and develop our local attractions and entertainments.
4. Be able to describe tourist attractions in other communities in Mississippi.
5. Learn more about the geography and history of our state.
6. Be able to give clear and accurate highway information.
7. Put that traditional "Southern Hospitality" to work.

Hancock County Livestock Association Meeting May 10, 1949

The Hancock County Livestock Association held its third meeting on Tuesday, May 10th in the K. of C. Building with Ed H. Litloff, President as presiding officer. Thirty-two (32) attended the meeting. Mr. D. C. Morris, District Soil Conservationist from Hattiesburg was the speaker and discussed "Soil Conservation and its relation to a Balanced Livestock Program." Mr. Morris stated that any program depends on two things: (1) farmer and (2) land. To accomplish that a logical step by step growth must be developed. He further stated that the farmer could get help to develop this Conservation Program from the following:

- (1) His Soil Conservation District
- (2) Technicians
- (3) Publication
- (4) Neighbors
- (5) Business leaders where he trades.

One of the best ways of developing a conservation farmer is work with his neighbors by working on common problems. Through this he swaps labor, machinery, materials and then studies the result. Another essential for a conservation farmer is his friends in town. They can aid him with credit, which helps him in getting machinery, supplies, and most important of all their being interested in his work.

Mr. Morris stated that they are three steps that the farmer must take himself. (1) understanding, (2) doing and (3) finding satisfaction in doing. When the farmer finds satisfaction in doing, he gets greater profits, greater security, pride in accomplishments and satisfaction in spiritual values.

Mr. Litloff introduced Howard Simmons, County Agent, who led a brief discussion of the Fall Livestock Show.

Twenty six farmers and businessmen of Hancock County have paid their membership and are members of the Hancock County Livestock Association.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY HOW IT WORKS

Your social security card means you have an insurance account with Uncle Sam. When you work on a job covered by social security, you are building protection for your old age and protection for your family if you die.

For this Federal old-age and survivors insurance you now pay one percent of your wages, and your employer pays the same amount. It doesn't matter if you are 8 or 80.

Your security card represents an actual ledger record kept for you by the Social Security Administration at Baltimore, Maryland. There are more than 70,000,000 social security accounts. To get full credit for your work under social security, you must be sure to report the number of your social security account to your employer so he can send in a complete and correct report of your earnings under social security.

For further information, consult your local Social Security Administration field office.

This is the first of a series of articles on "Your Social Security." In our next issue, we will discuss "Your Social Security, How to Qualify."

R. W. Taylor School Host To Mrs. Mayo Tolman

The Junior Garden Club of the R. W. Taylor Elementary School was again host to Mrs. Mayo Tolman, ornithologist, from Pickyune, Miss. A talk on those birds studied on this year's program, the cardinal, the mockingbird and the American Robin, was followed by a quiz and telling of stories and legends; several members told of experiences with birds, their appreciation of the things they do for us and what we have learned from them.

Identification of birds from beautifully colored charts brought by Mrs. Tolman was particularly enjoyed, so much so that the time allotted for the meeting was far past before anyone was aware of it. Expressions of appreciation for her interest and help was offered the guest speaker with a cordial invitation to return for more talks to those clubs which are to be formed next school term. Mrs. Tolman has generously offered to assist in the forming of Junior Audubon Clubs. It is hoped that those plans now being formulated for such groups can be completed; with such a wealth of material in our locality for nature study there should be

BANQUET AT BAY HIGH SCHOOL FOR STUDENT ACTIVITY ASSOCIATION

The annual Student Activity Banquet of Bay High School was held in the gymnasium of the school on Tuesday evening when all students of the school who had been active in the school's activities were guests of the faculty and parents.

A delicious barbecued plate was served and paraphrasing a little Ed-die Cantor's "And did we Eat" it was "And did they Eat?"

A most interesting program was offered the friends and parents of the young people which was conducted with talent and dignity.

Reed Green, Athletic Director of Mississippi Southern College, was guest speaker and after offering a few laughs he gave a short but timely talk. He flung out the question "Are you going to stop here?" and reminded the boys and girls that college was the completion of the school life and then they must meet life. He left with them "Learn and Earn to Live and play Square."

Bay High Girls Give Account of Meeting

Sara Vaughn and Lillian Russell were selected to represent Bay High at the meeting of the Mississippi Academy of Science which was held at Hattiesburg on April 29. The following is an account of the day spent by them in the interest of science.

We were thrilled when we were told that we had been selected to represent Bay High as honor students in science at the meeting of the Mississippi Academy of Science to be held on April 29 at Mississippi Southern College at Hattiesburg. There was an extra thrill when we learned that we were two of one hundred students invited to attend.

Upon arrival, we along with all of the others registered and then attended lecture in the college auditorium where we were told many interesting facts about the grand old state of Mississippi and its great wealth of natural resources. Some of the speakers represented various industries and spoke along the line of their products.

Then came lunch in the cafeteria where a delicious lunch had been provided by the Hercules Powder Company of Hattiesburg.

Immediately after lunch we motored to Laurel to visit the Masonite plant there. Although this plant was strike bound we learned much about the making and use of Masonite.

Dr. Walker, head of the Biological Department of Mississippi Southern met with an enthusiastic response when he suggested the establishment of a Junior Academy of Science.

We were accompanied on the trip by Miss Alma Parker Bay High's athletic director.

This day was, of course, a source of education but it was also a day of pleasure and we do appreciate the opportunity.

Sarah Vaughn and Lillian Russell.

OSSO-MAURIGI NUPTIALS SUNDAY AFTERNOON

The wedding of Miss Mary Cecile Maurigi, daughter of Mr. Gaspar Maurigi Sr. and the late Mrs. Maurigi and Mr. Anthony C. Osso, son of Mr. and Samuel Osso of Hamilton, Ohio, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon, May 15 at 3 o'clock in Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic church, the Rev. Father E. P. Desmond officiating.

To the strains of the March from Aida, played by request, the bride entered with her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white slipper satin fashioned with the long full skirt, which fell in a train. The tight fitted bodice was finished at the neck with a yoke of silk net and bands of the material gave the off shoulder effect. Her short veil of illusion was held to her head with a plaited band of satin and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book on which lay a white orchid and loops of white satin ribbon holding gardenias, and lilies of the valley cascaded from this.

The bride had as her matron of honor her sister, Mrs. Nellus Rhodes, who wore a dress of lilac organza made with the full skirt and a short pointed peplum and the yoke of lilac net was finished with the bands of the material again giving the off shoulder effect. A wreath of gardenias held the lilac illusion face veil to her head. The bridesmaids were the bridegroom's sisters, Miss Mary Osso and Miss Jo Osso, who wore dresses of yellow taffeta and light blue taffeta, respectively. These dresses had the long skirts finished at the waist with a tie back and the same neck and off the shoulder effect was carried out. They wore the poke bonnets of the same material as the dress. Long lilac, yellow and blue fingerless gloves completed these costumes. They carried nosegay bouquets of butterfly gardenias.

Mr. Osso had as his best man, Mr. Donald Reimer of Hamilton, Ohio, and the ushers were Russell Maurigi, brother of the bride and Mr. Richard Toribio of New Orleans.

Following the ceremony Mrs. Theodore Thomas sang "Panis Angelicus" by Cesar Franck. Mendelssohn's march was played for the recessional. Mrs. George Guilbault played the organ. Preceding the entrance of the bride party she played several selections.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father, where Mr. Maurigi received with the bride party.

Later the bridal couple left for a trip to Mobile, Alabama and Panama City, Florida. They will return here the end of the week and will then go to Hamilton where they will make their home.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High and of the School of Nursing in Mobile. She is also a certified laboratory technician. She had been accepted by the United States Navy for war work but was recalled because of the illness and subsequent death of her mother.

—Mrs. Joe Van Clooster, of Long Beach, was a visitor here for the week end spending the time with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Telhard. Mrs. Van Clooster came for the Osso-Maurigi wedding on Sunday of last week.
